

Michel Lauzière Biography

“If you TIVO...record Michel to play at your next family gathering. Trust me; you’re going to see something you’ve never seen before...Amazing! Absolutely wonderful!” – David Letterman comments when Michel appeared on his show for the first time.

How can one best define MICHEL LAUZIÈRE? He is a combination of inventor, acrobat, comedian and musician rolled into one charismatic “Master of Unusual Comedy”. From interpreting classical music with his famous horn suit to playing popular themes using water guns, dishes, spoons, bottles or absolutely anything he can find, MICHEL LAUZIÈRE reveals some of the most ORIGINAL AND UNIQUE SIGHT GAGS ever performed.

Born in 1954 in Drummondville (Quebec), he showed early interest for comedy and performing arts. At 15, amateur talent shows were his first stage experiences. Soon after, he teamed up with a partner to create a comedy-juggling-magic-music act. The duo became successful and eventually turned professional.

Michel launched his solo career in 1989; and his CLEVERLY CRAFTED SKITS were an instant hit. Since then, he has performed in 55 countries, on 5 continents. One-man shows, TV productions, variety festivals and corporate events in 475 CITIES (and counting), including New York, London, Paris, Rome, Istanbul, Beirut, Dubai, Hong Kong, Tokyo, Seoul, Shanghai, Singapore, Buenos Aires...

MICHEL LAUZIÈRE has presented his full show in English, French, German, Spanish, Italian, Portuguese and Japanese. Also, for TV appearances, he can perform short visual and musical numbers, learning just a few efficient punch lines in any language! But the key language in Michel’s career is MUSIC. His ability to produce MELODIC SOUNDS OUT OF EVERDAY OBJECTS gradually became his trademark. And now, Michel shares this expertise in his brand new EDUCATIONAL show called “SCIENCE OF SOUND”, in which young audiences get to enjoy Michel’s funniest routines, while learning the basic scientific principles related to sound!

Artist of universal appeal, MICHEL LAUZIÈRE is one of the few comedian-performers who can charm and entertain audiences of all ages, all social backgrounds and all cultures.
